

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN my community?

Decisions are being made all the time that affect our roads, schools, neighborhoods, water, local ordinances and more.

YOU are responsible for what happens in your back yard.

Join the discussion about important issues affecting all of us.

What happens in your backyard is your responsibility

Discover how community members can collaborate, thrive and grow stronger when we combine our resources and work together.

These meetings are for elected officials, community leaders, dairy farmers and YOU.

In addition to facilitated discussions you'll enjoy a 60-minute farm tour and free ice cream. Bring a guest!

So we can plan, please RSVP to

“This meeting is so important! You'll see how everybody's role affects someone else's – from the farmer producing food to the consumer buying groceries. Whether it's the safety of our water or the condition of our roads and schools, we're all connected.”

Brian Forrest, Stratford, Wis. dairy producer
